Part A. This section to be completed by the seller/transferor

I, _____, duly authorised being the (specify title) _____ of (company/business name) _____ trading as (store name) _____ advise that I/we have sold/transferred the licence to the copy of ROCKET which is registered in the name of the above store to (company/business name) _____ trading as (store name) _____. I understand that in so doing, all rights to ownership of the software covered by this licence, together with all working manuals and software disks, are transferred to the new owners and that I no longer have any rights to use them. I declare that I have removed all copies of the software program from all computer systems currently or previously in my possession or used by me. I understand that I cannot at any time forthwith use this existing software licence, and that should I wish to use ROCKET in the future, I must purchase either a new registered licence from CustomSoft Australia Pty Ltd or a legal "second-hand" licence via another party.

Special conditions

I/we warrant that, where applicable, I/we have made the purchaser/transferee aware that I/we purchased this copy of ROCKET under a group/discount pricing scheme which involves conditions on the use of special features within the software, and/or commitments in respect of maintaining a current support contract, and/or other special conditions, and I warrant that these conditions or commitments, where applicable, have been included as part of the purchase/transfer and/or have been accepted by the purchaser/transferee, in lieu of which I/we agree to accept the liability of those conditions/commitments.

B. This section to be completed by the purchaser/transferee

The transfer of the licence to use the copy of ROCKET as described in Part A of this form can only proceed if, as part of the transfer, the purchaser/transferee has received from the seller/transferor the master disk(s) which pertains to this software licence.

EXPLANATION: The Copyright Act allows only a master disk to be bought and sold. While you may copy the software onto your hard drive in order for the program to run, it is a criminal offence for this reproduction copy to be used by anyone other than the original licence holder or for the reproduction copy to be sold or disposed of to any other person.

I, _____, duly authorised being the (specify title) _____ of (company/business name) _____ trading as (store name) _____ acknowledge that I/we have purchased/received from (former owner's company/business name) _____ trading as (store name) _____ a copy of the ROCKET software registered in the name of _____, and that this purchase/transfer has included the current ROCKET master disk(s) and appropriate working manuals/documentation.

Registration details on the current disk label/packet read _____ _____ (or, attach a photocopy of the current ROCKET master disk and/or packet serial details).

I acknowledge that I have been made aware by the seller/transferor of any special conditions that may have attached to the purchase/use of this software licence (if applicable - see Special Conditions section of Part A). I understand that the ROCKET licence restricts the use of this copy of the software to the number of computers specified on the licence, and at only one geographic site at any one time. I understand that a change of registration/store name on the master disk(s) will involve a charge payable to CustomSoft Australia Pty Ltd.

Replacement of master disk(s)/manuals/documents, etc, is also chargeable.
